THE CONVICTED NEGROES.

As was stated in the Gazette, Calvin Johnson, Richard Pines and Eugene Dorsey, three of the negroes convicted in the Corporation Court of the murder of Walter F. Schultz on the night of March 6, were sentenced to be electrocuted by Judge Barley yesterday afternoon. Each of the trio reassured his innocence of the crime imputed to them.

The men were brought into the court room yesterday when argument was made by Mr. L. H. Machen, counsel for Johnson, on a motion for a new trial for his client.

Messrs. Aylet B. Nicol, J. Randall Oton and H. N. Garner, counsel for Pines and Dorsey, had also made motions for new trials for their clients.

Mr. Machen was followed by Mr. S. G. Brent, commonwealth's attorney, who spoke in the defense of the indictment and conviction of the three men.

Judge Barley overruled the motion for a new trial, after which each prisoner was brought in separately.

Johnson was the first called upon to show cause why the sentence of death should not be passed upon him. In a weak voice he replied: "Well, judge I have nothing to say except that I am innocent." The court thereupon sentenced him to be electrocuted September 3.

Richard Pines was next ushered into the prisoners' box. In answer to the usual question he stood erect and, in a very nervous condition, said: "You ought to give me a show. Smith is looking for his freedom, and that is why he is keeping so quiet. I heard him tell a woman in jail about $5 and a watch, and he promised to pay her when he got out. I wish the people would give me a show so I could prove my innocence."

Judge Barley replied: "Pines, you have been represented by able counsel, and you have had a splendid jury from Fairfax county and they have found you guilty of one of the most diabolical crimes ever committed here, and one which stirred the whole country." He thereupon sentenced Pines to die on September 10. The convicted man trembled with emotion as the sentence was pronounced. After he had been sentenced the prisoner, as stated yesterday, said: "Judge your honor, I believe in a man dying for his crimes, but if you murder me you will cause God Almighty to grieve on his throne."

Dorsey was subsequently placed in the prisoner's box, and he also announced he was an innocent man. Judge Barley sentenced him to die on September 17.

THE HEAT WAVE.

The torrid wave which settled over the vicinity early this week was as fierce as ever this morning. The sultry conditions of last night kept most people from sleeping. An occasional southern zephyr was wafted over the city, but many were not in positions to get the benefit of it. These breezes, however, were short-lived and came at long intervals. The younger generation especially infants, had the most uncomfortable experience and numbers tossed and fretted throughout most of the night.

SUN BROTHERS' PROGRESSIVE SHOWS.

With the advent of spring and summer each year, comes the merry tented show, with its trick elephants, jolly clowns, cute ponies, wild beasts and beautiful horses. With everything new but the name and title, the Sun Brothers' Great Progressive Shows are underlined to exhibit at the Fair Grounds on July 2nd. The show will arrive here in its own magnificently equipped railway cars, which are conceded to be among the finest ever used by a show company. The show uses all water and sun proof tents; these pavilions are new and of the latest ornate build. The big tents and the surrounding grounds are brilliantly lighted with Electro-Calcium generators, which afford the finest light ever used for a similar purpose. Throughout the show is one of the finest equipped in America. Two complete performances are given daily. Matinee and night at 2 and 8 o'clock. At 12:30 will be offered entirely free to the public, a series of gala out door shows of a sensational and diversified character.

It is said that cries of murder, apparently emanating from a woman, were heard at the foot of Cameron street Wednesday night. People employed in that neighborhood say they heard no cries of distress from any one that night.

THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN.

The Canadian newspapers are giving glowing accounts of the International Council of women which convened last summer, at Geneva, Switzerland, and now assembled at Toronto, Canada. It seems that this huge and cosmopolitan gathering, a parliament in fact of women, representing every civilized nation on earth evolved from a small and humble beginning. At first inaugurated by a very few earnest, faithful and philanthropic workers, who by their persistent energy and devotion to the cause of bettering the condition of all women engaged in every occupation and profession have now enlisted in their aid, many of the most prominent members of society in this country and Europe. Among the early workers and founders of the International Council were Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett and Mrs. Mary Wright Sewell who, to quote from a Toronto paper, exemplified in an accomplished fashion the American facility of speech and rapid elucidation of argument. The well known actress Julia Arthur is also mentioned among the prominent speakers, her subject being "The stage."

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Opera House an appreciative audience witnessed the first performance of the Metropolitan Vaudeville Co. The singing by Joseph Battle and Madam H. Varena was very good and the prison scene from Il Trovatore was well rendered. There will be an entire change of programme next week with Guy Johnson, that well and favorably known black face comedian, as the head liner, assisted by an entirely new company.

At the Alexandria Amusement Company tonight there will be a specially prepared programme of motion pictures. Come out and enjoy them. You also have a chance to secure the prize.

At the Surprise you will be again entertained by the best vaudeville that has been seen here in a long time, also a well selected lot of pictures. This house like the others is kept cool by electric fans. Come out and keep cool.

DEATHS.

Mr. Charles H. Nash died at his home, No. 317 north Pitt street, last night. The deceased was a native of Remington, Fauquier county. He was 31 years old and he leaves a widow. The interment will be in Fairfax county, and the funeral will take place from Sharon Church on Sunday afternoon.

Malcolm Lee, youngest son of Mrs. Rachel and the late J. O. Kerby, died at Washington Grove, Md., last night. The deceased was 24 years old. William Harris, colored, a native of this city, died at Binghamton, N. Y., yesterday. The remains were brought to this city and the funeral took place this afternoon.

DR. LLOYDS CONSECRATION. If the consent of the General Church is had in time, it is probable that the consecration of Dr. Lloyd will take place on St. Luke's Day, October eighteenth. The consecration will probably take place in Christ Church, Alexandria, as this was the church to which Dr. Lloyd's family belonged, and in which he grew up and was confirmed. The bishop-consecrator will, in all probability, reside in Alexandria. [Southern Churchman.]

ACCIDENT TO DRAW.

One of the bolts which held the draw in position in the new highway bridge across the Potomac fell out at an early hour this morning, which caused the electric railway track at the southern approach to fall about eight inches, rendering it impossible for trains to pass. Early morning passengers were compelled to walk across the bridge. A few hours later the draw was placed in position after which traffic passed over it as usual.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Oton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning: Pearl Johnson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5. Ervin Fox, charged with being drunk on the streets, was dismissed. Charles Harris, charged with stealing a coat from a house on north Washington street, had his case continued.

DEATH ON A TRAIN.

A passenger, whose name could not be learned, died on south bound Southern Railway train No. 37 between this city and Manassas at a late hour last night. The deceased lived in Smithton, Pa., and was on his way to Asherville, N. C., where he hoped to recuperate his failing health.

Kenneth Baggett a tin shower from the ladies of the society.

Ridley Shufeldt was one of the most noted three card monte men in the far west. A lone deck of the red or blue pastboards, a fast moving express and an upstate hayseed was his one idea of a heavenly existence. But just like the weather or the late fashion in ladies' openwork skirts, Ridley's idea has changed (thank goodness). Nowadays whenever he wants to feel like life is worth living he sends a wireless to Mr. Zinifer for a supply of those irresistibly delicious Auth Products from the Auth Stand, via aeroplane express.
